Our Story

Miriam and Joseph first crossed paths during a Zoom class in the middle of a pandemic, by pure chance. Miriam had joined Joseph's section after missing her own. As she asked questions throughout, she stood out every time she spoke.

Curious, he reached out to her on Instagram, and what started as a simple message quickly turned into long conversations and an undeniable connection. Not long after, they went out together, and from that moment, their story truly began.

What followed was a summer full of memories: countless dates, activities, gym sessions, laughter, and growing together day by day. Through every moment, they found not just love, but a best friend in each other, and the beginning of a lifetime side by side.
